17 February 2010

APPOINTMENT OF ADVISORS

Alinta Energy Group (ASX:AEJ) today announces the appointment of Macquarie Capital Advisors Limited and UBS AG, Australian Branch (“UBS”) as joint advisors in respect of further work which AEJ is undertaking to consider deleveraging opportunities for the business, including recapitalisation options, following the agreement to settle the debts and fees owed to the Babcock & Brown International Group, the successful conclusion to the senior debt restructuring and the negotiated settlement of the NWS Price Dispute.

UBS will continue in its role under a separate mandate as a strategic adviser to the business.
